

Delegation of German Industry and Commerce in Washington, DC

June 19, 1865: The day when federal troops arrived in Galveston, Texas to take control of the state and ensure all enslaved people were free. "Juneteenth" is also known as Freedom Day and came 2.5 years after the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation, honoring the end of slavery in the United States.

In honor of Juneteenth, our offices will remain closed today. Learn more about Juneteenth and its history: <https://lnkd.in/gzHHppw3>.
